

A new and beautiful Sir William Orpen painting of Miss Lillian Carstairs, well known in New York, London and Paris society.

Easter in the Holy Land

A most unusual picture showing the Nebi Musa (Prophet Moses) parade in Jerusalem from St. Stephen's Gate to Jericho.

These wolves will no longer frighten the children of Nebraska farmers, for there was a huge wolf hunt and hundreds of the animals were slain.

Keystone.

The first photograph of the heir to the throne of Afghanistan to be published in America is shown here. He is studying at the Lycee Michelet, Paris.

International.

Fiume, the little Adriatic town made famous by D'Annunzio, is now in the hands of Italian carabinieri, who are here seen patrolling the streets.

P. & A.

One of the most remarkable photographs ever taken of a naval group. This shows the staff of Admiral Hilary P. Jones, commander of the Atlantic fleet, on board the flagship Columbia. On the table may be seen a war game board. Left to right: Commander E. G. Oberlin, Capt. C. E. Riggs, Commander Benjamin Dutton, Lieut.-Commander W. S. Farber, Lieut.-Commander Jules James, Commander R. B. Hilliard, Lieut. A. R. Mack, Capt. George Brown, Jr., Lieut.-Col. J. W. Wadleigh, Lieut. D. W. C. Ramsey, Capt. B. R. Patrick, Lieut. T. A. M. Craven, Lieut. R. L. Porter, Jr.

The Baroness Marka Rousskaya, in a crinoline costume of the time of Louis XIV. she wore at the Pall Mall bal recently.

Albert P. Dupont.